DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1, 4, 6-8, and 12-15 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Drawings

2. The proposed drawing correction and/or the proposed substitute sheets of drawings, filed on 12/23/02 have been disapproved because they introduce new matter into the drawings. 37 CFR 1.121(f) states that no amendment may introduce new matter into the disclosure of an application. The original disclosure does not support the showing of the outlets 70a-70c.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 4 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 4 is indefinite because it is not clear how "the outlets for connecting external controls . . . connect mechanical parts" in lines 2 and 3. There are two separate outlets shown in Figures 1 and 2.

Claim 15 is indefinite because it is not clear how "the area increases in size" in line 2.

Art Unit: 2834

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1, 4, 6-8, 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as containing subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The outlets 70a-70d were never clearly disclosed nor clearly claimed before. As a result, they are considered as new matter and the substitute specification will not be entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 12, 13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Engle.

Regarding claim 1, Engle shows an anti-deflagrating operating actuator integrally protected against deflagration and having an external protection housing (22) that is formed in a shape that outlines internal parts (rotor and stator) of the actuator, said actuator comprising:

- A motor (14) connected to an electric power source;

Art Unit: 2834

- A gear reducer (86, 92) connecting at least one of an external drive device and the motor, wherein the gear reducer performs one of linear motion transmission or regular motion transmission;
- A plurality of outlets (two holes on 48) for connecting external controls and the electric voltage (38, 40);
- Wherein the outlets are positioned so that wiring may avoid kinking, stretching, and impairment of wiring resistance, and
- Wherein an area of free volume (inner volume for rotor and stator) adjacent to brackets (32, 34) supporting the motor is uniform.

Regarding claims 4, 6, 7, 12, 13 and 15, it is noted that Engle also shows all of the limitations of the claimed invention.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

9. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

10. Claim 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Engle in view of Birdwell.

Regarding claim 8, it is noted that Engle also shows all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the switch contained in a metallic tear-preventing sheath reinforces with PVC and having a mechanical seal.

Birdwell shows a cable (73) connected to a switch (47) for the purpose of reducing fire hazard.

Since Engle and Birdwell are all from the same field of endeavor; the purpose disclosed by one inventor would have been recognized in the pertinent art of the others.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to include the switch contained in a metallic tear-preventing sheath reinforces with PVC and having a mechanical seal as taught by Birdwell for the purpose discussed above.

11. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Engle in view of Douglas.

Regarding claim 14, it is noted that Engle also shows all of the limitations of the claimed invention except for the left and right-handed threading. Engle uses screw (68) for connection.

Douglas uses threading for connection of caps (51, 52) for the purpose of reducing fire hazard.

Since Engle and Douglas are all from the same field of endeavor; the purpose disclosed by one inventor would have been recognized in the pertinent art of the others.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to use threading for connection as taught by Douglas for the purpose discussed above.

Conclusion

12. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
